LOVE FOR JESUS

From the Letter to the Romans (8:35-39)

What will separate us from the love of Christ?

Will anguish, or distress, or persecution,
or famine, or nakedness,
or peril, or the sword?

... In all these things, we conquer
overwhelmingly through him who loved
us. For I am convinced that neither death, not life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor
present things, nor future things, nor
powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

From the Writings of Padre Pio

May the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete, enlighten us ever more about the immensity of the eternal inheritance to which we have been destined by the goodness of our Heavenly Father. As

*our spirit enters this mystery, our soul
distances itself from earthly things, and we become desirous of entering our heavenly homeland. (Letters II)*

Reflection

Prayer

Loving Saint Pio, you loved Jesus with an ardent and burning love.

You manifested this love by your detachment from
worldly pleasures, your great love for "sister poverty" which was your true treasure.

Through the humiliations you
endured silently, grant that we may walk in the light of Divine Grace,
that we may come to eternal salvation, and

help make us worthy of the name "Christian" we bear.

Glory be to the Father...

ABANDONMENT AND CONFIDENCE IN GOD

From the Gospel
according to Matthew (8:5-10)

When he entered Capernaum, a centurion approached Jesus and appealed to him, saying, 'Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, suffering dreadfully'. He said to him 'I will come and cure him'. The centurion said in reply, 'Lord, I am not worthy to have you enter under my roof; only say the word and my servant will be healed. For I, too, am a person subject to authority, with soldiers subject to me. And [say to one, 'Go', and he goes; and to another, 'Come here', and he comes; and to my slave, 'Do this', and he does it'.

When Jesus heard this, he was amazed and said to those following him, 'Amen, I say to you, in no one in Israel have I found such great faith'.

From the writings of
Padre Pio

*Do not lose confidence in Divine Providence.
Trust in God, and
abandon yourself to Him. Let Him take care of you. Be calm and you will not be confused...
What I desire is that as* *your challenges grow,

so also may your
abandonment and confidence in God grow even more ... A soul that trusts in the Lord and places all its hope in Him, has nothing to fear. (Letters II)*

Reflection

Prayer

Loving Saint Pio, you
had compassion on human misery, and gave comfort to the afflicted.

You obtained graces,
consolation and peace
for them from the Lord.

Help us through the
adversities of life,
especially in our
illnesses and infirmities, not to rebel against them. Help us to accept the will of God with confidence and abandonment in Him.

Glory be to the Father...

PRAYER

From the Letter to Timothy (2:1-4; 8-10)

First of all, then, I ask that supplications,
prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone
...It is my wish, then, that in every place the men should pray, lifting up pure hands, without anger or argument. Similarly, too, women should adorn themselves with proper conduct, with modesty and self-control, not with braided hairstyles and gold ornaments, or pearls, or expensive clothes, but rather, as befits women who

profess reverence for God, with good deeds.

From the Writings of Padre Pio

*God's power triumphs over everything; but humble and suffered
prayer triumphs over God Himself! It lowers
His arm, extinguishes
His lightning, disarms Him, overcomes Him,*

appeases Him and makes Him, I would almost say, a friend and dependent...

*Let us glance at the divine Master who prayed in the Garden
and we will discover the true ladder which unites earth to heaven. We will discover that humility, contrition and prayer
make this distance
between man and God*

*disappear, an act in such a way that God
descends to man, and man ascends to God, so that they end up
understanding, loving and possessing one another. (Letters III, 27 August 1915)*

Reflection

Prayer

Loving Saint Pio, you are patron and protector of a host of children and devotees from around the world. Continue to speak to the heart of God, and present our needs to Him. Intercede for us that our prayers may be heard and answered, if they are for the good of our souls and in conformity to the Will of God.

Glory be to the Father...

Day 4

THE EUCHARIST

From the Gospel
according to Luke (22:14-20)

When the time came he took his place at the table with the apostles.
He said to them, 'I have eagerly desired to eat

this Passover with you before I suffer, for, I tell you, I shall not eat it again until there is fulfillment in the kingdom of God'. Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and said, 'Take this and share it among yourselves; for I tell you that from this time on I shall not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes'. Then he took the bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, 'This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me'.

And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which will be shed for you'.

From the Writings of Padre Pio

*But what hurts me most is the thought of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. My heart
feels drawn by a higher force each morning before I am united with him in the Blessed Sacrament. I have such a hunger and thirst
before I receive him that I almost die...*

(Letters I, 29 March 1911)

I think that the Holy Eucharist is a great means through which to aspire to perfection. But we must receive it with the desire and intention of removing from the heart all that is displeasing to Him with Whom we wish to dwell.

(Letters III, 27 July 1917)

Reflection

Prayer

Loving Saint Pio, you were a passionate and loving apostle of the Eucharist. The Mass you celebrated was "life of your life", the only strength and comfort of your painful days of infirmity. Pray that the Eucharist may also be for us life and support

on our difficult journey, that we may attain
eternal life!

Father...

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

From the Gospel
according to John (19:25-27)

Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary of Magdala. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, 'Woman, behold, your son'. Then he said to the disciple, 'Behold, your mother'. And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.

From the Writings of Padre Pio

We must make every effort, like many elect souls, to follow invariably this Blessed Mother, to walk close to her since there is no other path leading to life except the path followed by our Mother. Let us not refuse to take this path, we who want to reach the end of our journey. (Letters I, 1 July 1915) I wish I had a voice strong enough to invite the sinners of the whole world to love Our Lady. (Letters I, 1 May 1912)

Reflection

had a tender love and devotion for our

Heavenly Mother. Help us to render our devotion for this gentle and loving Mother of God ever more profound. Accompany us, that we may confidently approach her motherly heart, that we may love, invoke, and venerate her always with the recitation of her Holy Rosary.

Glory be to the Father...

SUFFERING

From the Gospel
according to Mark (8:31-32; 34-35)

He began to teach them that the Son of Man
must suffer greatly and be rejected by the
elders, the chief priests,

and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days. He spoke this openly He summoned the crowd
with his disciples and said to them, 'Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it.'

From the writings of Padre Pio

Learn how to suffer everything as a Christian, and do not be afraid. There is no suffering, for as insignificant as it may seem, that will not have its merit in eternal life...

You suffer with and for Jesus; be assured of this, and on the part of God I beg you to be at peace. Jesus himself is in the depths of your heart when you suffer.

*You are neither
separated nor far from the love of this God Who is so good. (Letters II)*

Reflection

were always a comfort
for any human suffering. Look at us who are in dire need of your assistance. From heaven raise your hand
wounded by divine love
and bless the little ones and those who are vulnerable, the sick and infirm, the abandoned

aged, families in difficulty, the world
troubled by the evil one,
and all of us your devoted children.

Glory be to the Father...

TEMPTATIONS

From the First Letter of Saint Peter (5:8-9)

Be sober and vigilant.
Your opponent the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.
Resist him, steadfast in faith, knowing that your fellow believers

throughout the world
are undergoing the same sufferings.

From the writings of Padre Pio

*You must not be surprised, therefore,
that our common enemy
has done all in his power to make you pay*

*no heed to what I wrote you. This is his task and he receives his reward.
But always despise him
and arm yourself
against him with increasing steadfastness of faith... Temptation is a sure sign that the soul is very pleasing to the Lord. Accept
everything, therefore,
with thanks. Do not think that this is a mere opinion of mine; no, the* Lord himself has pledged it with His divine word: And because you were acceptable to the Lord', the angel says to Tobit (and through Tobit, to all those souls who are dear to God) 'it was necessary that you should experience temptation'. (Letters III, 29 January 1915).

Reflection

Prayer

Loving Saint Pio, in life you underwent constant battles with Satan, and you were always victorious. Pray that we, trusting in divine assistance and with the protection of the Archangel Saint Michael, may not succumb to the terrible temptations of the devil.

Glory be to the Father...

Optional Prayer

Day 8

September 21

RECONCILIATION

From the Gospel
according to John (20:21-23)

Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained'.

Padre Pio

*I haven't a free moment.
All my time is spent in releasing my brothers*

*from the snares of Satan. May God be praised. Please do not afflict me further, like the others, by appealing to charity, because the greatest charity is that of snatching souls from Satan so as to win them for Christ. This is precisely what I am doing constantly by night and by day...
Innumerable people of all classes and both* sexes come here for the sole purpose of making their confession, and I am only sought for this purpose. There are some wonderful conversions. (Letters I, 3 June 1919)

Reflection

were a great apostle of the confessional. You snatched many souls
from Satan's grasp.
Lead us and many more
brothers and sisters
back to the font of pardon and grace.

Glory be to the Father...

Day 9

September 22

THE GUARDIAN ANGEL

From the Acts of the Apostles (5:17-20)

Then the high priest
rose up and all his companions, that is, the party of the Sadducees, and, filled with jealousy, laid hands upon the apostles and put them in the public jail. But during the night, the angel of the Lord opened the doors of the prison, led them out, and said, 'Go and take your place in the temple area, and tell the people everything about this life'.

From the Writings of Padre Pio

May your good guardian angel always watch over you; be your guide on the rugged path of life; always keep you in the grace of Jesus and sustain you with his hands so that you may not stumble on a stone; protect you under his wings from all the snares of the world, the devil and the flesh...

Always have him present to your mind's eye. Often remember the presence of this angel; thank him, pray to him, always keep him good company... Turn to him in times of supreme anxiety and you will experience his beneficial help. (Letters III, 15 July 1915)

Reflection

Prayer

Loving Saint Pio,
during your life you had a particular devotion to the angels, and a very special devotion to your Guardian Angel. Help us to 'understand and appreciate this great gift that God in his
excessive love' wants to give everyone, by entrusting each person

to his particular
guidance and protection.

Glory be to the Father...

Short Biography

Saint Pio of Pietrelcina

was born to Giuseppa and Grazio Forgione on May 25, 1897 in Pietrelcina, a small farming community in the mountains north of Naples and was given the name Francesco. Although his family was very humble, their love for the Lord was very rich!

From an early age, “Frankie” demonstrated great devotion for the Lord. At the age of five, he dedicated his life to God. He was a quiet boy who loved to pray and spend time in the church down the street from their house. He was given the grace to see and talk with his guardian angel, our Lord, and the Virgin Mary and was surprised to learn that everyone didn't share that grace!

Francesco wanted to enter the Capuchins but the family didn't have the necessary funds so his father migrated to the United States to work and send money home. At the age of fifteen, Francesco was able to enter the Franciscans and took the name Pio in honor of the patron saint of his local church. He was remembered by his peers and superiors for his love for the Lord and quality of his prayer: “What struck me most about Brother Pio was his love of prayer.”

On August 10, 1910, at the age of twenty-three, Padre Pio was ordained to the priesthood in the Cathedral of Benevento.

The celebration of the Holy Mass was for Padre Pio, the center of his spirituality and celebrations would often last several hours.

Padre Pio felt called to offer his life as a victim for sinners. He wrote, “For a long time I have felt in myself a need to offer myself to the Lord as a victim for poor sinners and for the souls in Purgatory. This desire has been growing continually in my heart so that it has now become what I would call a strong passion... It seems to me that Jesus wants this.” The marks of the stigmata, the wounds of Christ, appeared on Padre Pio’s body, on Friday, September 20, 1918, while he was praying before a crucifix and making his thanksgiving after Mass. He was thirty-one years old and became the first stigmatized priest in the history of the Church. With resignation and serenity, he bore the painful wounds in his hands, feet, and side for fifty years.

Padre Pio suffered his entire life from his wounds, chronic illnesses and attacks of the Evil One. The most cruel of all was the attacks from his beloved church and he offered all these for the salvation of souls.

God endowed Padre Pio with many extraordinary spiritual gifts and charisms including the gift of healing, bilocation, prophecy, miracles, discernment of spirits, the ability to abstain beyond man's natural powers from both sleep and nourishment, the ability to read hearts, the gift of tongues (the ability to speak and understand languages that he had never studied), the gift of conversions, the grace to see angelic beings in form, and the fragrance which emanated from his wounds and which frequently announced his invisible presence. When a friend once questioned him about these charisms, Padre Pio said, “You know, they are a mystery to me, too.” Although he received more than his share of spiritual gifts, he never sought them, never felt worthy of them. He never put the gifts before the Giver. He always remained humble, constantly at the disposal of Almighty God.

His day began at 2:30 am when he would rise to begin his prayers and to make his preparation for Mass. He was able to carry on a busy apostolate with only a few hours of sleep each night and an amount of food that was so small (300-400 calories a day) that his fellow priests stated that it was not enough food even to keep a small child alive. Between Mass and confessions, his workday lasted 19 hours. He very rarely left the monastery and never took even a day's vacation from his grueling schedule in 51 years. He never read a newspaper or listened to the radio. He cautioned

his spiritual children against watching television.

In his monastery in San Giovanni Rotondo, he lived the Franciscan spirit of poverty with detachment from self,
from possessions, and from comforts. He always had a great love for the virtue of chastity, and his behavior was modest in all situations and with all people. In his lifetime, Padre Pio reconciled thousands of men and women back to their faith.

The prayer groups that Padre Pio established have now spread throughout the world. He gave a new spirit to hospitals by founding one which he called “The Home for the Relief of Suffering.” He saw the image of Christ in the poor, the suffering, and the sick and gave himself particularly to them. He once said, “Bring God to all those who are sick. This will help them more than any other remedy.”

Serene and well prepared, he surrendered to Sister Death on September 23, 1968 at the age of eighty-one. He died as he had lived, with his Rosary in his hands. His last words were Gesú, Maria – Jesus, Mary – which he repeated over and over until he breathed his last. He had often declared, “After my death I will do more. My real mission will begin after my death.”

In one of the largest liturgies in the Vatican's history, Saint John Paul II canonized Padre Pio on June 16, 2002. During his homily, Pope John Paul recalled how, in 1947, as a young priest he journeyed from Poland to make his confession to Padre Pio. "Prayer and charity—this is the most concrete synthesis of Padre Pio's teaching," the Pope said.

St. Pio's whole life might be summed up in the words of St. Paul to the Colossians, "Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I complete what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the Church."

Padre Pio, pray for us!

Prayer of Padre Pio after Holy Communion

Stay with me, Lord, for it is necessary to have You present so that I do not forget You. You know how easily I
abandon You.

Stay with me, Lord,
because I am weak and I need Your strength,

that I may not fall so often.

Stay with me, Lord, for You are my life, and without You, I am
without fervor.

Stay with me, Lord, for
You are my light, and without You, I am in darkness.

Stay with me, Lord, to show me Your will.

Stay with me, Lord, so that I hear Your voice and follow You.

Stay with me, Lord, for I desire to love You very much, and always be in Your company.

Stay with me, Lord, if You wish me to be faithful to You.

Stay with me, Lord, for as poor as my soul is, I want it to be a place of consolation for You, a nest of love.

Stay with me, Jesus, for it is getting late and the day is coming to a
close, and life passes;
death, judgment,
eternity approaches. It is necessary to renew my strength, so that I will not stop along the way and for that, I need You.

It is getting late and death approaches, I fear the darkness, the temptations, the
dryness, the cross, the sorrows. O how I need You, my Jesus, in this night of exile!

Stay with me tonight, Jesus, in life with all its dangers. I need You.

Let me recognize You
as Your disciples did at the breaking of the bread, so that the Eucharistic Communion

be the Light which
disperses the darkness,
the force which sustains me, the unique joy of my heart.

Stay with me, Lord,
because at the hour of my death, I want to remain united to You, if not by

communion, at least by grace and love.

Stay with me, Jesus, I
do not ask for divine consolation, because I do not merit it, but the gift of Your Presence,
oh yes, I ask this of
You!

Stay with me, Lord, for it is You alone I look for, Your Love, Your Grace, Your Will, Your

Heart, Your Spirit,
because I love You and ask no other reward but to love You more and more.

With a firm love, I will love You with all my heart while on earth and continue to love You perfectly during all eternity. Amen.

Visit to the Most Blessed Sacrament

(Padre Pio recited this prayer daily.
It was written by St. Alphonsus Liguori.)

O my Lord Jesus Christ, who for the love You
bear mankind, remain
night and day in this Sacrament, all full of tenderness and love,
expecting and receiving all those who come to visit You: I believe that You are present in the Sacrament of the altar; I adore You from the depths of my own

nothingness and thank You for all the favors
You have bestowed
upon me; and especially for having given me Yourself in this Sacrament, and Your holy Mother Mary as my Advocate; and for having called me to visit You in this church.

I pay homage this day to Your most loving Heart and this I intend to do for three intentions: first, in thanksgiving for this great gift; secondly, in reparation for all the insults You have received from Your enemies in this Sacrament; thirdly, by this visit I intend to adore You in all places

upon the earth, where You are least adored
and most neglected in Your Sacrament.

My Jesus, I love You
with my whole heart. I repent of having in the past so many times displeased Your infinite goodness. I intend, with the help of Your grace
never more to offend You in the future; and at the present, wretched as

I am, I consecrate myself wholly to You. I give You, and utterly renounce, my entire
will, all my affections, all my desires, and all that I possess. From this day forth, do with me
and with all that is mine whatever is pleasing in Your sight. I ask and desire only Your holy love, final perseverance and the perfect
fulfillment of Your will.

I commend to You the souls in purgatory,
especially those who were most devoted to this Blessed Sacrament
and to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

I commend to You in like manner all poor sinners. Finally, my dear Savior, I unite all my affections with those of Your most

loving Heart, and thus united I offer them to Your eternal Father, and I pray to Him in Your name graciously to accept and answer them for love of You.

A Prayer for Trust and Confidence in God's Mercy

by St. Pio of Pietrelcina

O Lord, we ask for a boundless confidence
and trust in Your divine mercy, and the courage to accept the crosses
and sufferings which bring immense
goodness to our souls and that of Your Church. Help us to love You with a pure and contrite heart, and to humble ourselves beneath Your cross, as we climb the mountain of holiness, carrying our cross that leads to heavenly glory. May we receive You with great faith and love in Holy Communion, and allow You to act in us as You desire for your greater glory. O Jesus, most adorable Heart and

eternal fountain of Divine Love, may our prayer find favor before the Divine Majesty of Your heavenly Father.

Santísimo Padre San Pio de Pietrelcina, tú que te encuentras cerca de nuestro amadísimo Padre Dios Jesucristo, y has tenido la santidad y resistencia en las tentaciones del maligno.

nosotros
aprendamos a hablar
con nuestro Ángel de la Guarda, para que en
todo momento sepamos
obedecerle, pues es la
luz viva de Dios que nos evita la desgracia de caer en pecado. Nuestro Ángel siempre está listo a señalarnos el camino

del bien y a disuadirnos de hacer el mal.

“Invoca a tu Ángel de la Guarda, que te
iluminará y te
conducirá.

Dios te lo ha dado por este motivo. Por tanto válete de él.”

Quinto día

18 de septiembre

Prudentísimo Padre San Pío de Pietrelcina. Tú que tanto amas y nos enseñastes a amar a las Almas del Purgatorio; por las que te has ofrecido como víctima que expió sus penas. Ruega a Dios Nuestro Señor, para que ponga en nuestros corazones sentimientos de

compasión y amor por estas almas. También nosotros ayudaremos a las Almas del Purgatorio y
reduciremos sus
tiempos de destierro y
de gran aflicción.
Ganaremos para Ellas,
con sacrificios y
oración, el descanso
eterno de sus almas; y
las santas Indulgencias necesarias para sacarlas del lugar del

sufrimiento.

“Oh Señor, Padre
Jesucristo; te suplico

viertas sobre
mí, todos los castigos que
son para los
pecadores y las ánimas
benditas del purgatorio;
multiplica sobre
mí los sufrimientos, conque conviertes y

salvas a los pecadores, y libralos pronto del
tormento del
purgatorio.” - Padre Pio

para que todos los enfermos; por
intercesión de Maria Santísima, puedan

Primeiro dia

14 de setembro

Amado São Pio de Pietrelcina, você
carregou em seu corpo os sinais da Paixão de Nosso Senhor Jesus
Cristo. Você levou a Cruz para todo o
mundo, enquanto
agüentava os
sofrimentos físicos e
morais que flagelavam

sua alma e seu corpo em um martírio contínuo.
Nós o imploramos, por
favor, reze a Deus para nós, assim cada um de nós poderá aceitar as pequenas e as grandes Cruzes da vida, e todo o mundo poderá
transformar o
sofrimento individual
em vínculo seguro que nos liga à Vida Eterna.

«É uma grande vantagem

conformar-

se aos

sofrimentos

que Jesus

enviará a você. Jesus,
que não suportar ver que você sofre, virá socorrê-

lo e o confortar,

enquanto infunde uma
coragem nova em sua

alma». - Padre Pio

Segundo dia

15 de setembro

São Pio de Pietrelcina,
que está junto com
Nosso Deus Jesus, você
soube resistir às
tentações do maligno.
Você sofreu os golpes e a opressão do
endiabrado do inferno que quiz induzi-lo a abandonar a sua estrada de santidade. Nós o

imploramos, por favor, reze a Deus por nós, de forma que, com a sua ajuda e com ajuda de todo o Reino Divino, nós possamos achar a
força para abandonar o pecado e perseverar de fato na fé até o dia de nossa morte.

«Coragem e não tema
as agr e ssões
do Diabo.
Lembrem-se

disto sempre: ‘É um sinal bom se o inimigo gritar e rogar o seu aperjúrio ao seu redor – isto mostra que ele não está dentro de você».

Terceiro dia

16 de setembro

Virtuosíssimo Padre
São Pio de Pietrelcina:
você amou muito Nossa Senhora, de quem
recebeu, diariamente,
graças e consolações.
Nós imploramos, por
favor, reze à Mãe Santa por nós, enquanto
coloca nas mãos Dela
nossos pecados e nossas orações sem fé, de forma que, como em Caná da Galiléia, o Filho atenda a Mãe e nosso nome seja escrito no Livro da Vida.

«Que Maria seja a estrela que ilumina seu caminho, e que ela lhes mostre o modo seguro para seguir o Pai Celestial.

Ela é como uma âncora,
na qual vocês têm que
se agarrar e conservarse cada vez mais unidos e firmes nos momentos de tentação».

nós aprendamos a falar
com nosso Anjo da

momento nos obrigamos
a obedecer-lhe, pois és a luz viva de Deus que nos livra da desgraça de cair em pecado. Nosso Anjo sempre está pronto a ensinar-nos os caminho do bem e a

dissuadir-nos de fazer o mau.
